

INSTRUCTIONS & APPLICATION FOR VICE~VERSA ARTIST-IN-RESIDENCE PROGRAM

The Vice~Versa Foundation provides an opportunity for artists to work in their Goan Heritage Houses at their Artist-in-Residence: Fellowship Program. The space is constituted for creative innovation and reflection, and the residency is open for outstanding practicing artists from around the world.

In four or eight week residencies, artists, curators, writers live in one of the two Goan heritage homes in a private suite with attached bath and living/studio space. They have access to a fully equipped and stocked kitchen, laundry facilities, a library, computer and Wi-Fi. Residents may participate in any of the critiques or workshops that are offered during their stay. Buses connect the houses to the capital and provincial cities.

The residency program is an all expense paid program for individual artist, which covers studio space, a cash stipend of $250 per month, lodge and board and limited art supplies. Linen, towels and toilet amenities are provided. Flight tickets from artist city/country, transportation and shipping to or from the program are not covered. Dependents, spouses and companions are not admitted nor supported in the program. Only one or two artist are admitted into the program, each month.

Two to Four works will be selected from work completed at the residency for the foundations collection. Curators and writers have to delineate and outline in their proposal, as to how their work accomplished at the residency, will benefit the Foundation. The works done during the residency may be documented and published in the annual primer/volume of Vice~Versa and/or on our website.
